WITH FLORILEGIUM

BACH CHRISTMAS ORATORIO

In this concert of Parts 1,2,3 & 6 of J.S. Bach's Christmas Oratorio (or Weihnachts-Oratorium), Wimbledon Choral Society, singing in German, will be accompanied by Florilegium, one of Britain's most outstanding period instrument ensembles.

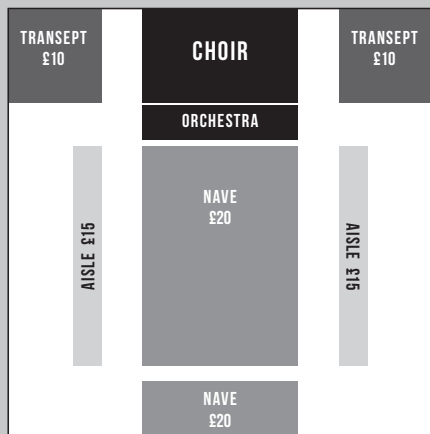

All four soloists are familiar with Bach's works and have sung with many of Europe's leading conductors both in London's major concert venues and throughout Europe.

In the magnificent surroundings of Southwark Cathedral, this concert should prove to be a wonderful antidote to dreary November days, and with parts 1,2 & 3 heralding an early and joyous start to the oncoming Christmas festive season.

The concert starts at the earlier time of 6.30pm, and will finish at about 9.00pm, allowing concert-goers time to dine at one of the many excellent restaurants in the area.

There will be plasma screens in the transepts, where there is little or no view.

SEATING PLAN

"The choir, as usual, sang superbly. We thought the soloists were outstanding. And to top it all Florilegium!"

"I do mean it when I tell you as a choral singer myself (and not with Wimbledon), that next time Wimbledon Choral Society run a concert within 50 miles of you, go out of your way to go to it and I can promise you, you will come away with a smile on your face having had a wonderful fulfilling evening."
