

The music is itself the luminosity
The air filled with vibration
A home of life enhancing sensory experience
That reaches out of the hall into the city

Dear Friend of WCS - We are back!

The Mozart Mass in C Minor, which we performed at the Cadogan Hall on Saturday (November 27) was our first outing since 2019. It was, for us, exhilarating to be singing, performing with Neil leading us, and to have an audience.

A marvellous reaction from a great audience indicated that our wonderfully loyal family, friends, and followers, had ventured forth to support us - brilliant. I hope those in the Hall enjoyed hearing us as much as we enjoyed singing.

Roxanna Panufnik's Letters from Burma was, for me, a very different musical experience and her introduction and gave such insight into thoughts and intentions.

I have a weakness for the French (or Tenor) Horn and the Britten featured it superbly – another new experience as had not heard this particular piece before.

The London Mozart Players were a joy to listen to, and to be accompanied by, with wonderful interludes on oboe, double base, bassoon, flute, - not to mention the splashes of red they wore which made the stage feel festive.

Our next performance will be the annual, very popular, Carol Concerts (afternoon [3pm] & evening [6pm]) on Saturday December 18 at St Paul's Wimbledon.

If Government edicts mean cancellation we will refund, so no financial risk is attached. Tickets are available from: <https://www.trybooking.com/uk/events/landing?embed&eid=23623>

Friends are able to reserve seats for these concerts but, given their popularity, we do limit reservations to 2 seats per Friend. If you are attending, please let me know, directly, at cik@cham.co.uk or 020 8947 7651 (daytime):

- 1) that you will be attending;
- 2) whether it is the afternoon or evening performance;
- 3) if you have seating preferences – these cannot be guaranteed but we always do our best.

Hope to see you on December 18.

Kind Regards

Friends' Secretary

ps If you could support the Frank Gehry Concert Hall in Wimbledon giving WCS a local venue that would be sooooo much appreciated: <https://wimbledonconcerthall.co.uk/>.
