forthcoming events, click "book here" or go to:
<https://www.trybooking.com/uk/events/landing?embed&eid=27282&track=WCS>

Tickets are available in the front nave (£30), rear nave (£25) and restricted view (£5). You are offered the opportunity to donate to the Unicef fund to protect children in the Ukraine.

I do not know St John's but have been advised it is glorious; am looking forward to enjoying the ambience and the singing.

BEFORE the Rachmaninov we offer you a Musical Weekend.

Saturday May 7 there is a day of singing, free of charge, in St Mark's Church, Wimbledon, SW19 7ND which is a 5 min walk from Wimbledon station, 2 from the 93 bus (south bound) or 4 north bound – should that be east & west? There is a car park in St George's Road and metered parking in surrounding streets – BUT you may wish to stay all day!

Wimbledon Choral start the 4th Merton Song Festival at 1045. Singers of all ages perform music they enjoy. Coffee, tea, & homemade cakes are available. Drop in any time (Lunch Concert 1300; Tea Concert 1500). and enjoy what you hear – it is fun!

Sunday May 8 offers two brilliant value workshops from 2-6 pm:
1) Sing with Sonoro, at St John the Divine, High Path, SW19 2JY, led by Neil Ferris. Tickets (£5) from www.sonoromusic.com.
2) Sunday Sing Out for children 7–16+, Merton Abbey Primary School, High Path, SW19 2JY led by Adam Saunders & Soo Bishop. Tickets (£5) via: <https://mmf.org.uk/singfest22/>.

Hope to see you very soon.
