Tradition and Creation

Traditional songs and music arranged by contemporary composers celebrating love and creation, including:

Three John Rutter anthems

All Things Bright & Beautiful, Look at the World, For the Beauty of the Earth

Cecilia McDowall's brilliantly crafted arrangements of four folk songs

A Fancy of Folksongs

Bob Chilcott's charming piece

Like a Singing Bird

Ward Swingle (of Swingle Singers fame)

Give Us This Day – a beautiful melody in gentle jazz style

Louis Armstrong's classic summarizing the mood of the concert

What a Wonderful World

Wimbledon Choral Society performs regularly in all the main London concert venues with professional soloists and orchestras and is widely regarded as one of the best amateur choirs in the South East.

Following the excitement of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration weekend, this upbeat concert of music celebrates the wonders of creation and the glorious beauty of the world that surrounds us. With the early start of 6 pm, enabling a leisurely post concert supper in one of the many places on the South Bank, what could be a better way of spending a June evening?
