The music from the north-eastern quadrant of Europe and its big neighbour to the east is incredibly rich in its sound. The content of this final concert of the 2015-16 season draws on the choral repertoire of Arvo Pärt (Estonia), Henryk Gorecki (Poland) and Rachmaninov (Russia). In addition there will be works by two British composers – Charles Wood and John Tavener, the latter being a repeat of his work Svyati that was such a hit at last summer's concert.

FUTURE DATES FOR OUR FORTHCOMING 2016-17 SEASON:

Sat 5 Nov 2016:
Concert at Southwark Cathedral

Sat 17 Dec 2016:
Christmas concert at St Paul's Southfields

Sat 25 March 2017:
