CLOUDS OF DREAMS

Our Summer concert features a programme of American choral music: mainly contemporary, but with a leavening of traditional spirituals and folk songs. Joining our regular music team of Neil Ferris and Michael Higgins is special guest, Einar Jóhannesson, principal clarinettist of the Icelandic Symphony Orchestra.

SATURDAY 15TH JUNE 2019

6PM

ST PAUL'S, SOUTHFIELDS, LONDON SW19 6EW

TICKET PRICES: £17
STUDENTS: £10

TICKETS: WWW.WIMBLEDON-CHORAL.ORG.UK
OR SPEAK TO A CHOIR MEMBER

Join us for an evening showcasing the best of American choral music. Our final concert of the 2018-19 season features composers who were either born in, or who have settled in the US. This includes Whitacre, Lauridsen, Gjeilo, Hogan and Larsen, some of the finest musicians devoted to the choral arts and all adept at bringing their chosen texts to life through sympathetic and innovative settings.

Our special guest for the evening will be the Icelandic clarinettist, Einar Jóhannesson. He will accompany the choir for some of the pieces, as well as performing an exciting solo work: Bernstein's Clarinet Sonata, with our pianist Michael Higgins.

From Eric Whitacre's Sleep to Moses Hogan's arrangement of Hold On, come and float away on our Cloud of Dreams.
