Initial rehearsal for the music for the
RBL Festival of Remembrance 2007.

Sunday 4th November 2.30pm-4.30pm(ish).

Robert Grayson has very kindly offered to let us make use of his church in Southfields for this rehearsal. Thank you, Robert. Southfields Baptist Church is just 2 minutes from Southfields tube station. At the time of writing there are no known planned engineering works for that day. Take the left hand exit out of the station and turn left down Wimbledon Park Road (away from the traffic lights). You'll find the church less than a hundred metres/yards on the right hand side. There's a map below. Bus routes 39 & 493 also stop close to the tube station.
